The film is remake of the 2014 movie Madrasapattinam, which was the first South Indian production in the history of the film industry, by the same director. The film is produced by Subodh Kumar Gupta and Ajay Devgn under the banner of Yash Raj Films and is distributed by Eros International and is a musical blockbuster in the Indian box office. Madrasapattinam (2014) was an India-Tamil blockbuster directed by Sanjay Leela Bhansali, and also starred Ajith Kumar, Radhika Apte, Vivek Oberoi and Deepika Padukone in lead roles. Deepika Padukone plays the role of Irali (a Kashmiri princess), Priyanka Chopra plays the role of Mariam (a Kashmiri girl from the same blood), Ranveer Singh plays the role of Sunny (Mariam's uncle), they all are ready to sacrifice their lives for a noble cause. They go to the mountains of Kashmir and fight their battle with each other. The film was released on 2 December 2014 all over the world and received positive reviews. The film is about a Kashmiri girl, Mariam and the story revolves around the Mariam's family, the love of the Mariam for Sunny and the all conflicts that follow from it. It's about the people of Kashmir and India who's lives were made such after the Partition of India, who suffered the ills of war and tribulations of division, and how they have finally achieved a sense of togetherness in a violent environment. Parijaat (2017) is an Indian social drama film directed by R. Balki. It released on 6 November 2017. The film stars Deepika Padukone and Ranveer Singh in lead roles. The film is the remake of the 2012 Bengali film Aparichito Athole. It is produced by Subodh Kumar Gupta, Ajay Devgn and Bhushan Kumar under Yash Raj Films. The music of the film is composed by Sanjay Leela Bhansali. The film received positive reviews from critics and was a commercial success. It became the highest-grossing Indian film of 2017. The film became one of the biggest remakes of Bollywood with a new cast and a new plot, and it's Bollywood's first of this genre.
